Mastermind rules of engagement:

Members agree to "arrive" (call in) for each meeting on time, prepared and enthusiastic.

Telephone etiquette for conference calls apply, i.e. no background noise, use the "Mute" (*6) feature.

Interactions are positive, constructive respectful, on topic and within the allotted time.

Experience is valued over "advice"

Professional language and demeanor fitting of a leader is the order of the day.

Masterminding is a powerful, dynamic and productive experience when well executed. The group's success depends upon mutual respect, confidentiality, harmony and honest interaction.

I agree to the above rules of engagement.

I will make full payment for six monthly 80-minute masterminds via Pay pal or personal check prior to 1st meeting.
